John Sipes, Department of State, telephoned stating that John Hanes had appeared before a Subcommittee of Senate Government Operations testifying on various passport bills. Hanes took the liberty of mentioning that General Cabell had commented most usefully on this subject in executive session before House Foreign Affairs and thought possibly the material might be of interest to the Subcommittee. Sipes was inquiring if arrangements could be made to make the material available. The Subcommittee consisted of Ernest Gruening (D., Alaska) as Chairman and included Karl Mundt (R., S. Dak.) and Edmund S. Muskie (D., Maine). I advised Sipes to suggest to Walter Reynolds, Chief Clerk and Staff Director of the full Committee on Government Operations, that if the Senators were interested Reynolds should telephone me.
